

Because I live, YE SHALL LIVE ALSO.

Easter 2023

JOHN 14:19

As we just heard in the Passion Sunday gospel, Jesus raised his close friend, Lazarus, from the dead. When Lazarus came out of his tomb, his hands and feet were bound with his burial bands. Jesus said to untie him, so he was too able to walk. We often may feel bound by our bad habits, or we may seem drawn deep into the mud of our despair.

Easter is here again, and we may have just realized it's Lent, and we might be less prepared for the celebrations than we were last year. There is still time, use it! It's never too late, God is waiting for us. Just like the father in the story of prodigal son, He cannot wait to forgive us! Use this time during the celebration of Holy Week: prepare to come to celebrate the foundation of the Eucharist, and Priesthood on Holy Thursday. Relive Jesus's sacrifice on the cross for all of us and the true joy of His glorious Resurrection on Holy Saturday. Let us wear our finest clothes, but not only on our bodies, but to put on our spiritual clothes that is the Holy Spirit and the sanctifying gifts.

May Christ who is risen from the dead fill our hearts with his eternal Joy!

Wishing you a Blessed Easter!
