

Be glad and rejoice!

Psalm 9:2

Oh, that You would rend the heavens and come down, to be born in the hearts of faithful people.

We are waiting for Christmas because this solemnity always fills us with joy. We are waiting for the Lord Jesus to be born again. But it's not like it used to be, when there was no accommodation, no one was waiting for him. We are now preparing for his arrival, to be reborn in us, to be present among us. Jesus is invisibly in us, but he is visible in church, in the Eucharist. That is why we must have a church, a dwelling place for God among people!

Until now, there have been generous faithful people who have supported the church. We give thanks for their sacrifice and to those who will contribute to making our church beautiful at this coming Christmas, so that our God should have a place this year where we can adore Him.

Merry Christmas and a blessed New Year to everyone!

In Christ,

Fr. Imre
